WOMEN CAN MAKE ANYTHING AN INSULT

Some of you know what i'm talking about Can you turn a compliment into an Argument That's what i want to know [Applause] I live in los angeles california and Uh every new idea that comes out of There they adopted immediately And i'm a little more conservative like The new one is any man that says they're A woman Immediately you must address him as a Woman and i'm progressive i'm like all Right But they should have to pass a test First because women have skills men Don't have you can't just say i'm a Woman do something a woman can do then I'll believe you Right can you break into my iphone and The time i go to the bathroom and come Back to the dinner table Just something basic can you be totally Starving but have no idea what you want To eat Some of you know what i'm talking about Can you turn a compliment into an Argument That's what i want to know [Applause] It's like babe you look beautiful Tonight so i didn't look beautiful last Night You're good you are good You look so photogenic so i don't look Beautiful in real life Actually i believe there's so many Things women can do better than guys Women can do things Here's one example that i was at the Mall with my nephew babysitting i'm just Walking through the mall and a woman I didn't know pulled up a knee she goes Is that your son i go no it's my nephew And she she without any Hesitation she's he is adorable what's Your name you are so cute marcus when You turn 18 i'm coming back for you You're a little heartbreaker save him For me And she walked went back to shopping I challenge any man in this room [Music] Any guy go to the mall just approach a Woman you don't know is that your niece Can i have a word with her please Wow when you turn 18 i'm coming back for You Save her for me that's a good one You don't get to walk out of the mall They escort you out of them I was just talking to kids that's right R kelly tell it to the judge There's things women can do how about It's valentine's day or maybe your girl Misses you and she sends you a romantic Picture
