THE BEST REVENGE

The best revenge is letting go and moving on with your life The best revenge Is actually not taking revenge at all Is not even holding onto any kind of anger Is moving on With your life Is showing them that your life is so much better After they abandoned you It's easy to blame others Who harmed us in some way For absolutely everything That's wrong in our lives If it wasn't for them I could be happy If it wasn't for them I could have more money If they hadn't I could be where I wanted to be Some people get so busy looking for blame And they keep blaming and sabotaging Their own life Long after the person is gone Many people keep blaming Why it's easier Than moving on Having an excuse or a story about why they're not where they want to be earning sympathy from others The victim position gives them comfort And that's a lot easier than taking responsibility for themselves responsibility and moving on with your life However, this is not and will never be a good place to be Those who take responsibility for their lives and are ready to move on and leave the past behind are much more amenable to Achieving freedom, success and happiness Now, that doesn't mean there aren't terrible people in the world Who've done harm to others It's not about tolerating the behavior of others It's about taking back the power they took away from you When you were suffering too long after they left you Who wins when you keep blaming them? Who wins if you move on and forget about them and build the best life and success you could never even imagine? Who wins if you move on? Who wins if you forget about them? Who wins if you create the best for your life, full of success and abundance? YOU WIN! Take back your power Blame others for what they did but do n't blame them for what you didn't Blame them for what they did But bless them For making you stronger For making you a better person Blame them for what they did But thank them mostly for showing you exactly what you don't want

You can blame the world for bringing them into your life But then Be grateful for All the lessons you learned All the strength it gave you all the perspective it gave you Know in your heart that if they knew to be better they would have been better Know in your heart that you don't have to take anyone's negative energy How good does it feel to take all that weight off your shoulders? And focus on building your future.

What a bless! Let go Move on Never look back The best revenge Is not taking revenge It's simply moving on with your life And creating the Best version of yourself
